A mother and two children sitting on a sofa and watching the weather outside the window (raining).

Child 1: Oh, mom, it's raining!

Mom: Yes, what a shame you can't go out!

Child 2: I don't like rain. Mom, make it go away!

Mom: It will go away if you sing a song! Can you sing "Rain, rain go away!"

Children: Yes!

II grader: Rain, rain go away -song!

Child 1: Mom look it's not raining any longer. It's snowing! Yeeeeaaaahhh!

Child 2: Yeeeeaaaahhh!

Mom: Ughhhh! Snow! I don't like it!

Child 1: Mom?! Snow is the best thing in winter! There are so many good things about winter!

Mom: Really!?! Like what? I like spring and summer better. It's warm, joyful and playful.

Child 1: Hey guys. Come here. Let's show mom that winter is great.

Francsuki: paga sneg

Child 1: Listen and you'll see.

Tanja: Falling snow

Ljubica: recital+ pesna (Frosty the snowman)

Mom: What's the most fun thing for you in winter?

Children: Sliding!!!

Tanja: Coasting down the hill.

Child 1: And the best month in winter is December.

Child 2: No, it's December.

Tanja: Once upon a December

Child 1 (looking sad), Mom, but we can't have Christmas this year

Mom (looking puzzled), Why not dear? How come?

Child 1, ...because people in Australia can't have Christmas

Mom (startled), Whatever made you think that!

(children get increasingly excited/convincing during the following:

Child 1, Well... it's really hot...

Child 2, Yeah! 'cause it's summer there right now

Child 1, And Santa wears those fur lined boots and all...

Child 1, And the reindeer are used to the North Pole...

Child 2, It's really cold there you know! The reindeer couldn't stand the heat!

Both children, You can't have Christmas without Reindeer!

Mom, You don't need Reindeer to have Christmas

Song "Australian Christmas carol??" (Mimi + Morfa)

Both children (look at each other with a really happy expression), Neat!!!

Mom, Wonderful! NOW we can have Christmas, right?

Children contemplate for a second and then Child 2 looks sad

Child 2, No... I don't think so (big sigh)

Child 1 looks curious, mom looks flustered

Mom, Now why not!!

Child 2, Think of all the people who don't speak English... you can't have Christmas if you can't speak English!

Mom (semi-curious as to the rational behind this one... half grinning), And why can't people have Christmas if they can't speak English?

Child 2, well... you couldn't say Merry Christmas...

Child 1, or Happy New Year...

Mom: Oh, really! Well take a look at this.

Vesna Germanski Prosalava na Bozik.

Child 2, or sing Christmas Carols...

Child 1, Yeah! you couldn't even sing Jingle Bells. What would Christmas be without Jingle Bells!?

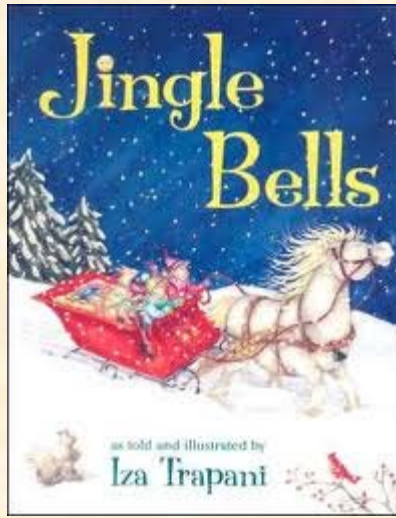

Both children, You can't have Christmas without Christmas Carols!

Mom, You can sing Jingle Bells in any language! Listen

Song: Jingle Bells in English (Olivera), French and German

Both children (look at each other with a really happy expression), Wow!!!

Child 1, So people don't need snow, reindeer or English to celebrate Christmas?

Mom, Nope!

Child 2, What do they need?

Mom, Hmmm, I guess that's a little bit different for every person. But I think people likely just need a bit of love, a bit of faith and a bit of happiness.
